THE TOL OF A CORSOR Of Public Morals is one which we should naturally expect to be congenial to Bishop Berdon, but it is one closing the Mails for Europe, &c., by the in which his Lordship is not always ef-Buglish and French Packets, when they feetive. When he addressed the congregation of St. John's Cathedral with special reference to the sinfulness of certain local amusements he was singularly unconhowever be posted up to 10 o'clock | vincing. But efter all whatever the strength of the LATE LETTERS may be posted (from suthority which he may derive from his office, a censor of Pulic Morels, even if he be sout on Board with the same Late is a Bishop, must be ressourble. The prescher must not per company with common sense when he enters the pulpit. No must he, in speaking of public amusements; adopt a lone of sour toyenty and denguines. as sinful that which, though feirelous from his own point of view, is in theli bermiess. The Bishop seems: Is with respect to the Christmus Pantomine with which the Acuse test Damatic Chap have been as passantly cotes rationed, the community pate said. hour opinion, entirely out of place. Whe DESCRIPTION DATE STORM DE CARE IN THE PERL Can hardly be said now that large sumbers of children in England are support injered physically and more y as connection with pentommer but ever if it were perfectly i have to the A. D. C.'s Pantomime here? Clearly the Bishop was in this instance talking on a subject about which he knew very little. He said he was not aware how far what was said about children engaged in Pantonimes at Home applied to the Pantomine here. If he had taken a little trouble to acquaint himself with the actual facts he would have found that it true, what possible application could it did not apply at all. It is a pity, to say the least, that the efforts of the Amateur Dramatic Club to supply a seasonable and welcome form of amusement, in which there is nothing demoralizing to either the porfermers or the audience, should be spoken of from the pulpit in such a way as to make it a possible inference that these efforts were in any way subversive of public morality. The question whether we are lioving our neighbour Case. Per Bot. as ourselves in sanctioning such a thing (48 the pantomime) by our presence, surely displays a remarkible narrowies and unreasonableness regarding the subject of public amusements:

Bishop Burdon had also what would ing the forthcoming Races. We all know, he said, how the sport is disgraced and lowered by the fact that so many are trying to make money by it.' While quite admitting that the desire 7.50 0.75 to make money by it has undoubtedly a deteriorating effect on the sport, we decidedy think the Bishop is wrong in assuming that this is what makes the chief attraction. Bowever, that is a point in regard to which we are not disposed to find fault with his homily, because his denunciations of gambling and betting may do good, and, at all events, can do no harm. Still it would be going too fer to ser, as the Bishop says by implication, that the person who makes a little bet on a race. in order to increase his interest in the event, is to be placed in the same category as those who go to the Races intently desiring their neighbour's money without giving him anything for it but the guilty pleasure of intently desiring theirs.

We are glad to see, from Shanghai papers hand to-day, that the loud protests raised by the press and the Foreign community of Shanghai against the asntence. on Occar Sjarborg, the Swede, have had the effect of getting him relieved from the degradation of being exposed in the canque. The Assessor of the Mixed Court, Mr Brown, in telling the prisoner that his sentence was changed to one of twenty-one days' imprisonment, stated that by returning to Shanghai after having been deported, he had placed himself at the mercy of the Chinese Court; which might punish him as it thought fit, even by the cangue, to which he had been sentenced. This, of course, only applies to a Foreigner who fails to obtain consular recognition; but we should think it extremely likely that he self-respect of the Fereign community would 8 0.75 lead to as emphatic an outcry as was raised on this occasion seminate the infliction of auch a punishment as the caugus upon any 1.10 white man it is within the bounds of possibility that the sea of troubles on 1.00 which Oscar Siarborg has embarked may agam cast him up at Shaugusi as an unclaimed beach comber, and make event of this bappening it will be interesting to see what will be done with him. Mr. Brown did not tell him he should be capgued if he came back a deroiet again and was
